Eastnor Pottery

There is every activity to try in Herefordshire including pottery making, creative writing, walking, mountain climbing, shooting, felting and upholstery to name but a few. Take a peak at our website for more ideas.

Halter up Golden Valley Llamas

Walk a Llama around glorious countryside and enjoy time in the company of these charming and inquisitive beasts.

Take a Shot HS Activities

Let your inner warrior loose on an action-packed day in rural south Herefordshire including Paintballing, Clay Pigeon shooting, Laser Tag, Archery or Air Gun shooting. Challenge family, friends or work colleagues to a day of rural adventure

Play with Clay Eastnor Pottery

Let your creativity soar at this idyllic studio located on Eastnor Castle estate in east Herefordshire. Master the potter's wheel and throw a pot or two with these superb clay workshops for individuals and groups of all ages.

Climb a Mountain Summit Mountaneering

Adventurous and active, test out your mountaineering skills in the gorgeous surroundings of Symonds Yat, south Herefordshire. Try trekking, scrambling, rock climbing, abseiling or simply fly down the heart-stopping zip lines.

Get it Covered Huntlands Farm

Combine a stay with a two-day upholstery workshop set within the beautiful unique rural retreat of Huntland Farm on the Worcestershire border. Take a much loved or new project along and learn traditional and modern techniques.

Get Art and Crafty Hereford College of Arts

Hereford City's vibrant, specialist arts college of residential courses in jewellery making, painting and ceramics. Welcoming practising artists or those just starting to explore their creative talents.

Creative breaks

Nurture your creative soul with an arts and crafts holiday in a rustic rural setting. With a range of traditional and ontemporary workshops, try your hand a felting, sculpture, glass fusing, stained glass, upholstery, basket weaving and more.
